Contents

A century ago our forefathers were staking their claims for gold in the western part of our country, pioneering in the true sense of the word.

We, the 1949-ers of Oak Park High School, are pioneers, too, in that our high school career is comparable to the way of life of the pioneer. Upon entering high school we stake our claim for our kind of gold, that intangible quality, "education."

When we enter the camp life of Oak Park High, we are greeted first by the guides who mark our trail. These experienced miners give us invaluable guidance.

Most of our time is spent in the actual search for our gold. We discover that there are many different places to find this treasure, and we spend four years exploring many fields.

But each miner finds that there is more to camp life than work, for the camp site soon bustles with the activities and the special interests of each prospector.

This year of '49 has contained many moments of fun and enjoyment. At the "special do-ins" in the camp we met and made friends, and enjoyed many adventures.

As '49-ers of Oak Park High School, we carry the treasure of our school years with us.

We Shall Long Remember

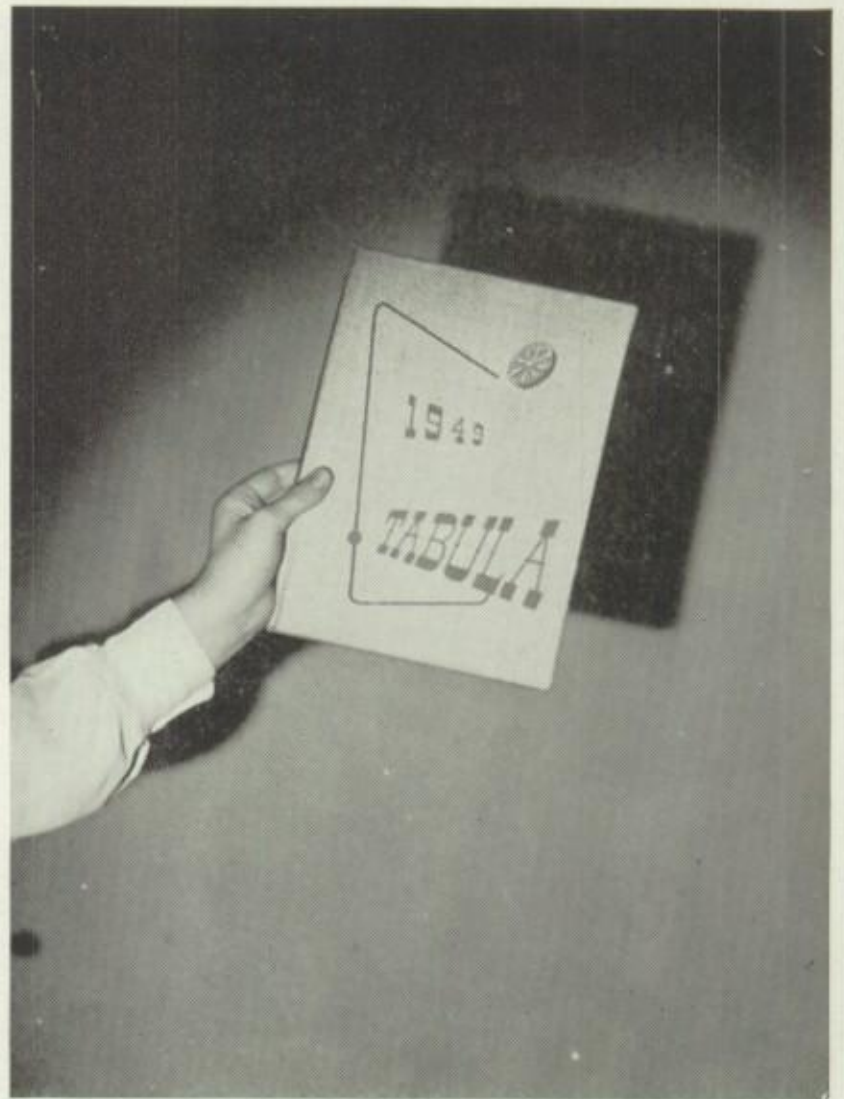

We shall long remember
The school scene in spring,
The shadows of the stadium gates,
The classes and the books,
The friends among teachers and classmates,
The games, the plays, the concerts, the conferences . . .
These recollections will keep Oak Park High School
In the memories and hearts of its students.

Each Year

The '49-ers

Dedicate

Their

Book . . .

. . . to Miss Rebecca Burt

With a great deal of pride and affection, we, the class of '49, dedicate our year-book to Miss Rebecca Burt. As a member of the English Department, Miss Burt has given her students some of her own deep understanding of English language and literature, and she has shared gladly with her students the culture which she herself possesses.

Besides successfully teaching English, Miss Burt has been an adviser to Literary Tabula staff for many years. Here, as in her classes, her charm and her sense of humor have added sparkle even to routine tasks.

No matter what Miss Burt does, whether it is teaching her freshmen about Apollo or helping Commencement Speakers, she always takes a genuine personal interest in each student. Her sense of fun, her earnestness and patience, and her sincere kindness have endeared her to her students.

Dr. Eugene Youngert, as Superintendent of Oak Park Township High School, interprets the school to the community and represents it in educational meetings. Above all, he is a student of education.

During the past school year Dr. Youngert has addressed several conferences on secondary education. At a meeting of the Secondary Education Board in New York City, he stressed the importance of a rebirth of the student's sense of integrity, a new realization of the student's individual importance, and a sense of reverence for life. "That we stand on the brink of disaster in our world I know, but, as a teacher to the core of me, I cannot but believe that men of good will, reverent before the fact of Life, can stem the awful tide." These words reveal the kind of man who leads our school.

Dr. Youngert Leads Our School.

Presenting the Scholarship Cup

These Administrators . . .

Eight deans guide Oak Park students throughout their four years in high school. Miss Pring and Mr. Seymour, the freshman deans, start the newcomers out right. The sophomore deans, Miss Ball and Mr. Fuog, prepare the sophomores for their jobs as upper-classmen. Miss Hartmann and Mr. Soliday, the junior deans, direct the juniors in their activities and vocational preparations. Finally, the senior deans, Miss Horner and Mr. Fritzemeier, advise the seniors in all their work and help them to formulate concrete college or vocational plans.

Thus, in our four years here, our deans help us to realize the goal which Oak Park High has set for each student—a successful and fruitful high school career.

Mr. Wilson is business manager of the school. All maintenance work is directed from his office.

Projection Staff...

Visual education is very important in our school. Every year we see movies on about 750 topics related to our courses. This number does not include the after-school films shown to different clubs and to the Physical Education Departments.

For on such an efficient visual education program, a good projection staff is necessary. We have an excellent staff, consisting of 31 boys. The sophomores and a few freshmen are taught the fundamentals of projection and the repair of the machines. They put their knowledge to work in their junior and senior years. In order to receive credit for this type of work, the boys must serve on the staff for two years and hold a key job for a semester. This means that they must handle a job in addition to that of running the machine.

This year, because of the great demand for movies, room 235 has been added as a permanent projection room.

Mr. Park is adviser to the group.

Don winds the film.

Service with a smile

Freshmen "meet" the library.

Student Librarians . . .

The library staff is an indispensable group to both the students and the teachers of Oak Park. The students who work in the library have several jobs: they do the necessary routine work; they deliver library slips and permits to the homerooms; they file the various pamphlets; they keep the book shelves in order; and they help at the main desk.

Another group of assistants works in room 225. Their duties consist of checking the history books in and out.

School credit is given to some students who spend extra time in library work. The people who work in the library benefit themselves as well as the school. They gain practical experience from this type of work, while they perform a task of service toward the school.

Student Council is composed of representatives elected from each class, working under the guidance of Dr. Eugene Youngert.

Student Council sponsors the system of hall guards, and staffs the Information Desk.

For the second year the Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance given in honor of seniors, juniors, and the alumni.

The members of the Council, under the guidance of its president, Jack Rodgers, have done a great deal of work. They have shown that our school has a well-organized student government.

Smoking Council...

On Smoking Council are a group of boys who enforce the rules concerning smoking on and near school property. At a weekly session, they try violators and assign penalties.

These boys are elected by the senior boys in the early part of the first semester of the school year. The majority are seniors; the others are juniors.

Safety Council...

On Safety Council students promote safe conduct and try violators of the school laws.

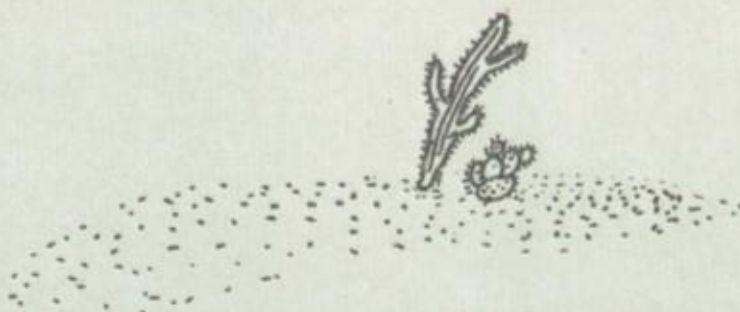

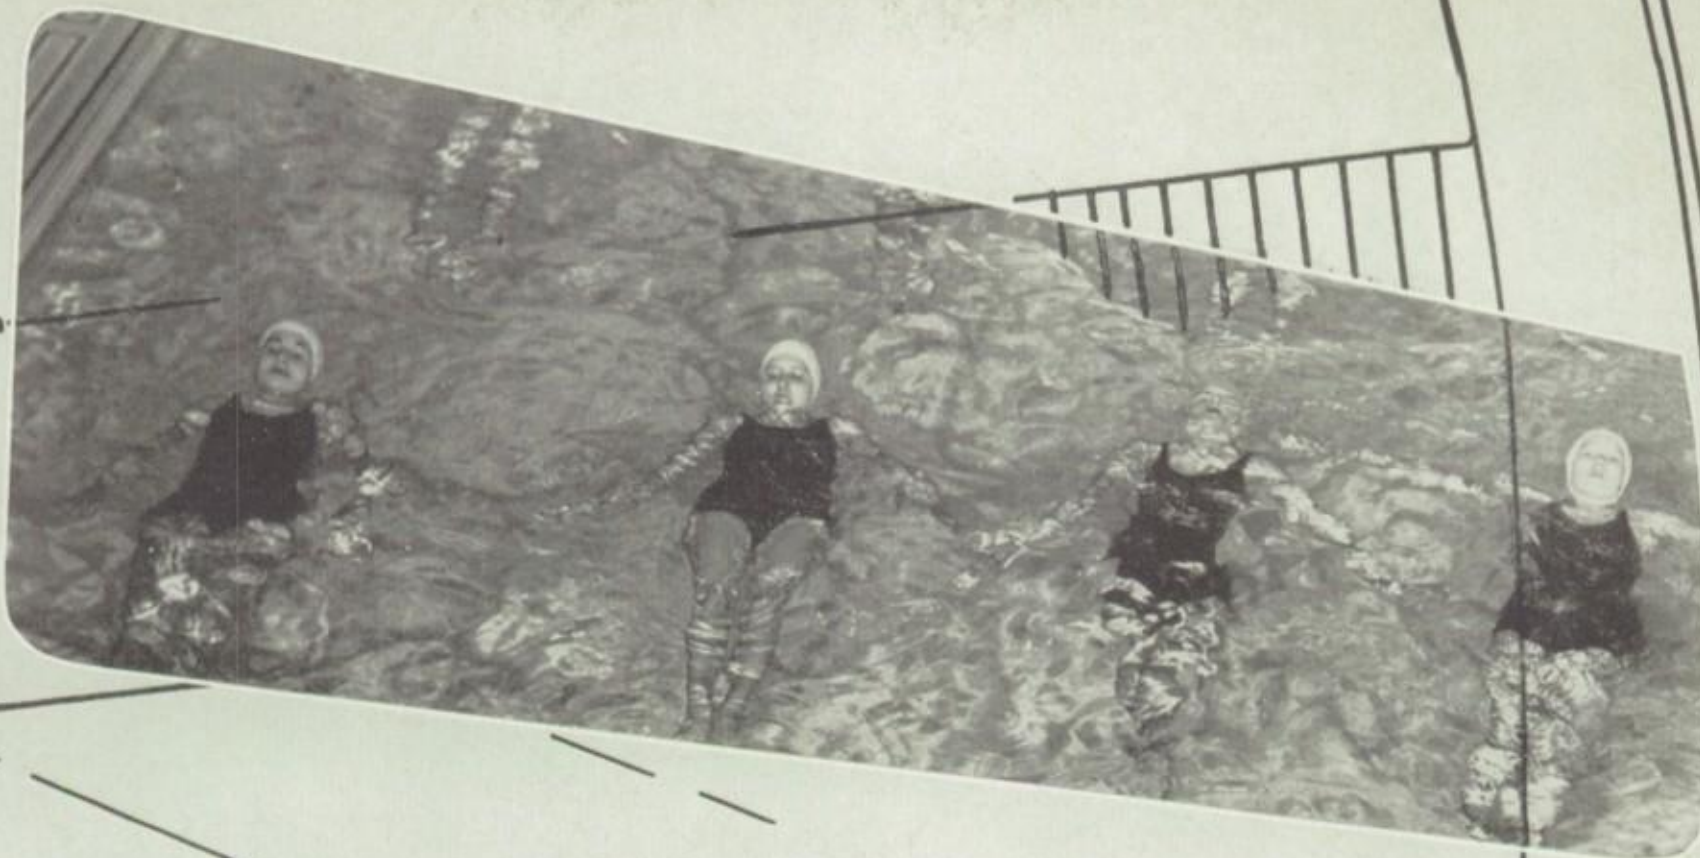

This Council governs school traffic both inside and outside of the building, administers the rules for bicycles, and enforces the driving rules.

The Council, which works with Mr. Storey as faculty adviser, is made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The boys give a great amount of time and service to the school.

Junior Council...

Junior Council is composed of two representatives from each homeroom, the class officers, and the members from the Junior Class on Student Council.

The deans, Miss Bernice Hartmann and Mr. Ray Soliday, work with the Council in sponsoring the activities of the year.

Included in the year's activities were the Junior Girls' Party and the Junior Prom. The Prom will be remembered for its gay decorations based on a circus theme. The Council planned the Prom and spent much time and effort to make it a success.

The junior year is a busy one, and the Council helps to make it enjoyable.

Junior Officers

These are the officers of the Junior Class: president, Ronald Huseh; vice-president, Charles Novak; secretary, Nancy May; and treasurer, Thomas R. Tucker.

We, the class of '49, are proud of our Senior Council; of our Class Officers, who head the Council; and of the Big Brothers and Sisters, whose job it is to acquaint the freshmen with our school activities and to help them adjust to the new environment. All these people have played an active part in a most unforgettable year.

Scholastic Leaders

These Are Seniors . . .

At the Honor Assembly in February, seventy-seven seniors were honored for maintaining four-year averages of 90 or over. Nancy DeKlyen, Delores Dennis, Robert Elwell, Donald Lesh, Leslie Meyer, Margaret Schumacher, Howard Willens, and Marjorie Wellington received special recognition for averages over 93.5. The coveted Scholarship Cup this year went to Howard Willens and Leslie Meyer, with averages of 94.5. Second place went to Donald Lesh, and third to Margaret Schumacher.

Mid-year Speakers

The high honor of being chosen a Commencement Speaker was bestowed upon Joyce Cooper and Gilbert Johns for the January Commencement.

Chosen to speak in June, were Joyce Ballantine, Ruth Eifrig, Donald Lesh, and Howard Willens. The high quality of leadership which they have shown by their participation in numerous school and outside activities, as well as their fine scholarship, will guide them to success in this endeavor as well as in the future.

BACK ROW—Borden, Peck, MacKain, Bently.

Music is an integral part of our high school life. At nearly every school event, at least one vocal or instrumental group plays an important part.

This year, the A Cappella Choir performed the oratorio, "The Holy City," at the Christmas Vespers, as well as singing at the Christmas and spring concerts, Mid-year Commencement, the Easter Sunrise Service, Baccalaureate, and outside concerts. The Choir's outstanding appearance was their production of "H. M. S. Pinafore."

The Girls' Choir took part in concerts at Christmas and in the spring with the Concert Band and Orchestra. The Choir sang at Girls' Conference and made several outside appearances.

The various vocal ensembles performed at the Christmas concert, the May Festival, many assemblies throughout the year, and other school activities.

Soloists are selected for the concerts by tryouts.

Spring and Christmas Concerts Are Presented

Music Directors

Mr. Little, Miss Wood, Mr. Riebman

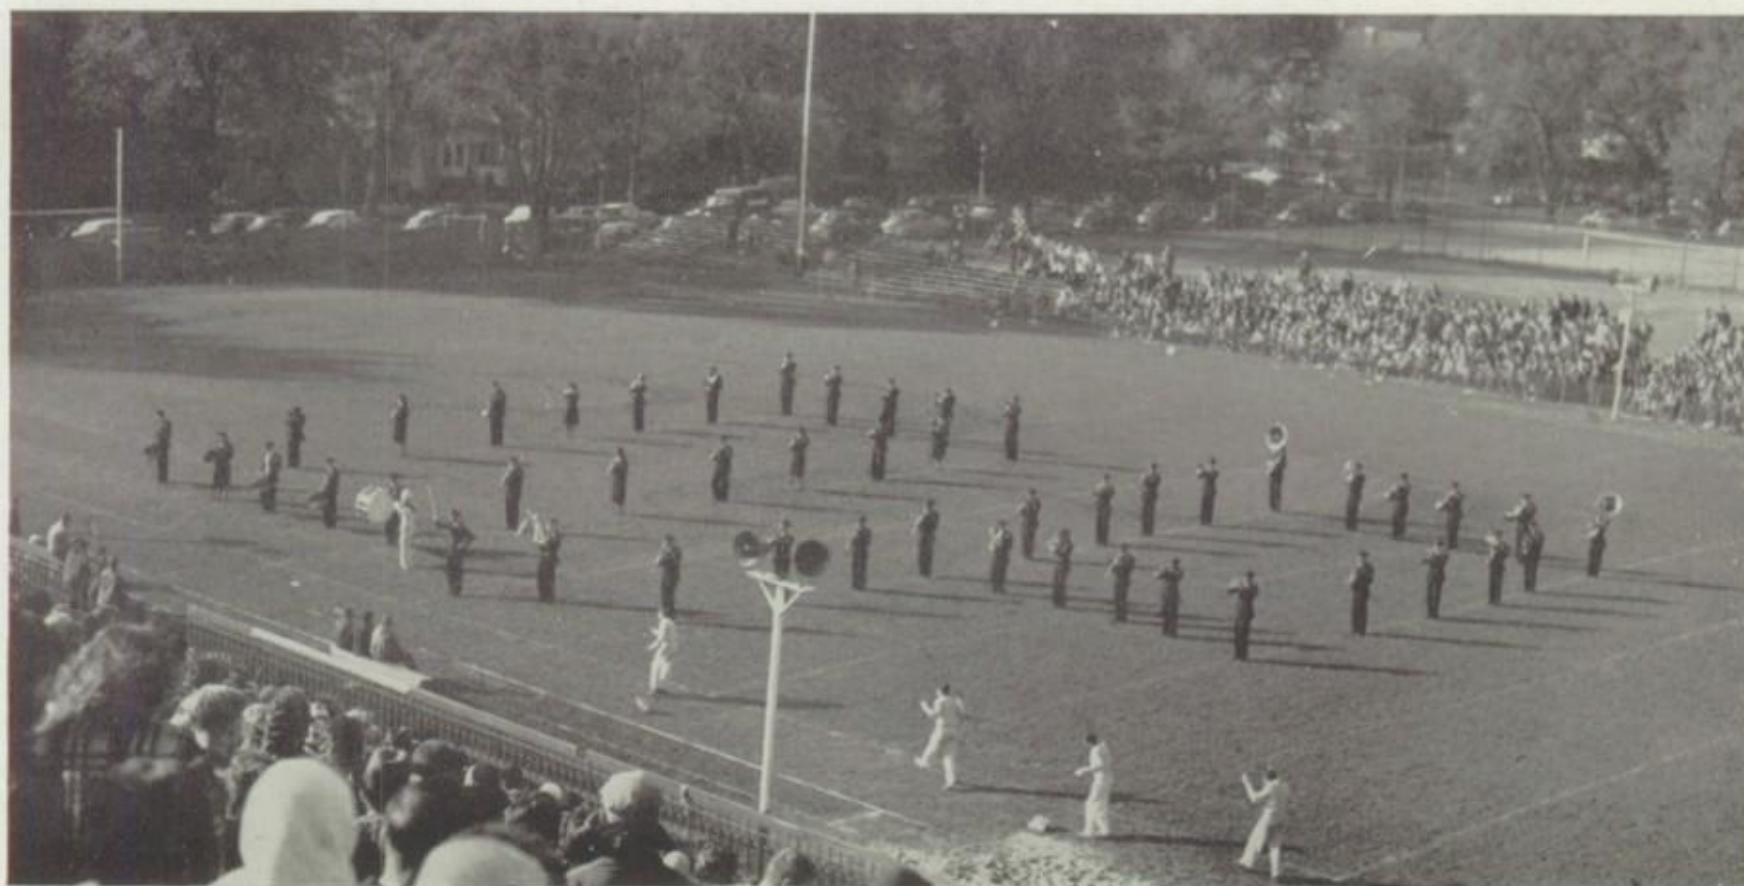

The Concert Orchestra was kept busy preparing for its many appearances this year, which included providing the overture and music between acts for the Girls' Club play and the Senior Class play, performances at the three Christmas concerts and the spring concerts, playing for the dance interpretation of "The Nutcracker Suite," the operetta, both the Mid-year and June Commencements, and Baccalaureate.

The Marching Band and Concert Band had the same personnel this year. The Marching Band, directed by Mr. Riebman, marched and played at the football games and at the Memorial Day parade. Mr. Little directed the Concert Band for the Christmas and spring concerts and the Gym Exhibition.

The instrumental ensembles, performed at various assemblies.

This year Richard Naprstek won second place in the annual Scholarship Concert sponsored by the Oak Park Symphony Association.

Trapeze . . .

Trapeze, the weekly newspaper at Oak Park High School, is enjoyed by the students every Friday. It includes all the school news that is of interest to the readers, who range from freshmen to faculty. Sports news, jokes, occasional bits of poetry, reports on official school functions and club activities, editorials, and columns can be found on the eight pages of this newspaper.

All writing is done under the supervision of Miss Ellen Stuart, the faculty adviser to this group.

Tabula is not just a product of a month or two but an accomplishment of the whole school year. The staff takes great pains in selecting the right pictures, composing the correct copy, and achieving near perfection in the layouts. All these activities were directed by Miss Smith and Miss Stuart.

The photography in the book was supervised by Mr. Lane; Mr. May helped with the scheduling of graduation pictures; Miss Blundell guided the art editors; and the business adviser was Mr. Hepker.

On the Literary Tabula staff were Carol Bowman, Leila Phee, Mathew Dillon, Richard Christiansen, Coralie Pratt, Margaret Aikens, Rosemary Stuebe, and John Dreiske, who worked under the supervision of Mr. Max T. Hohn and Miss Rebecca Burt, the faculty advisers to this staff. The staff chose the best student literature of the year, whether it was prose or poetry, and published it in two editions. The first Literary Tabula is presented in December, the second in May. This group urges students to write, reads contributions, edits copy, and arranges the final layout of the book.

There are also a freshman and a sophomore staff, supervised by Miss Davis and Miss McIntire, respectively.

The Tabula Publishing Board serves the high school's three publications—the Trapeze, the Tabula, and the Literary Tabula. This board has three main classifications — advertising, finance, and circulation. The advertising staffs secure the advertisements for the Tabula and the Trapeze. The business staff figures the expenses for the year. The circulation staff orders and distributes all publications. Mr. Hepker is adviser to the group.

All School Photography Is Done . . .

. . . By Staff Photographers

The photography staff does essential work for the Trapeze and Tabula. In front of the camera sights of these able boys appear all of the pictures that are published in school publications with the exception of the formal senior pictures.

These boys work under the direction of Mr. Lane.

The Club Program . . .

Silhouette study at a Girls' Club Assembly

The thirty clubs in school offer an extensive program of after-school activities. They give the student an opportunity to learn more about a subject which has interested him, about a hobby, or about his talent in dramatics or debating. Most of the clubs meet every other week, and they provide a really interesting and helpful program. The student learns the fundamentals of parliamentary law and becomes accustomed to being in and working with a group.

. . . Includes Hundreds of Students

Girls' Club Officers

These girls are the officers of the largest club in school. Marlene Moreno, historian; Nancy Peregrine, treasurer; Sue Saunders, vice-president; Joyce Ballantine, president; and Jane Fraser, secretary.

Every Girl Belongs to Girls' Club

Girls' Club is the largest club in school, for every girl is a member. It is primarily a service club, but its first aim is to create a spirit of friendship among the girls. Some of its services for the year have been sponsoring the production of "Stage Door" and filling Christmas stockings for the children at the Chicago Commons. It has also given several assemblies and sponsors class parties, the biggest of which was the Big Sister Party. Miss Horner is the adviser to the group.

In addition, this year the Suburban Girls' Conference was held at our high school on Saturday, April 23, under the sponsorship of Girls' Club. The theme of the conference was "The American Girl—A Girl of the World."

Championship strategy

Under the able coaching of Mr. Ross Anderson, our Huskies set the pace for the Suburban League with six victories and a single defeat. This record entitled Oak Park to the Suburban League championship, which was shared with New Trier.

The team looked good all season with exception of a heart-breaker played at Highland Park, which we dropped 6 to 0.

In the seven games played this season, the Huskies compiled a total of 198 points to the opponents' 45, a remarkable defensive record.

Carrigan, Couter, Johansen, and Hoag were awarded positions on the All-League first team. Mayer, Schweizer, Barclay, and Schreiber were named on the second team.

Hoag, who broke the Suburban League individual scoring record by tallying for 60 points, and Carrigan both received places on the All-State team.

League Standings

	Won	Lost	Tied
Oak Park	6	1	0
New Trier	6	1	0
Thornton	4	2	0
Highland Park	3	2	1

Put'er there!

Congratulations, Coach!

Coaches Wood and Anderson have good cause to be congratulating each other. Both men have done outstanding work for the school.

Coach Wood celebrated his twenty-second season on the coaching staff by tutoring his tenth State championship soccer team for Oak Park. This year Coach Wood was elected president of the National Soccer Coaches Association; he is the first high school coach to receive this honor.

Coach Anderson, in his first year at Oak Park, not only coached the football team to one of its most successful seasons, but also did a fine job as head of the Boys' Physical Education Department. He introduced instruction in tennis and badminton to the boys' gym classes this year.

. . . Co-State Championship

Oak Park had one of its finest soccer teams in years. Coach Wood ably piloted the team to a State championship which was shared with Lane.

Being dealt two defeats in the first two starts, the Woodmen buckled down and marched through the rest of the season undefeated, finishing with an admirable record of ten wins, two losses, and five ties.

Outstanding players on this year's squad were Chuck Iverson, who did fine work as goal tender, Bob Magee, Jim White, John Ames, John James, and Dick Massman. Massman and James were co-captains of the champions.

To the victor . . .

Cross Country Is New Sport

This year saw a new sport introduced to Oak Park's athletic program—cross country. Cross country is simply a two-mile run, in which each team enters from ten to twenty-five men. The winner scores one point, second place two points, and so on for the first five runners on each team. The points are then added, and the team with the fewest points wins.

Mr. Means coached Oak Park through a fairly successful first season. Making a good showing in the meet, the team took second in the District meet. Dean Anderson, Oak Park's top two-miler, placed fifth in the State meet at Champaign.

Neal Tuleen and Dean Anderson captained the team. James Pitts, Robert Stuker, Elwood Richard, and Joseph Krbec were among the outstanding runners on this year's squad.

Varsity Swimmers

The Varsity tankmen, during the past season, won nine meets and lost two, only to finish twelfth in the State meet. The squad was fourth in Suburban League standings.

Breast stroker Pascal Larry was the only Oak Park swimmer to get on the All-State team. Also outstanding were Tittle, Englehard, McEachran, and Juckett.

Oak Park Wins...

With Coach Noth at the helm, Oak Park's Varsity basketball team captured its first Suburban League championship in eighteen years, winning twelve and dropping two.

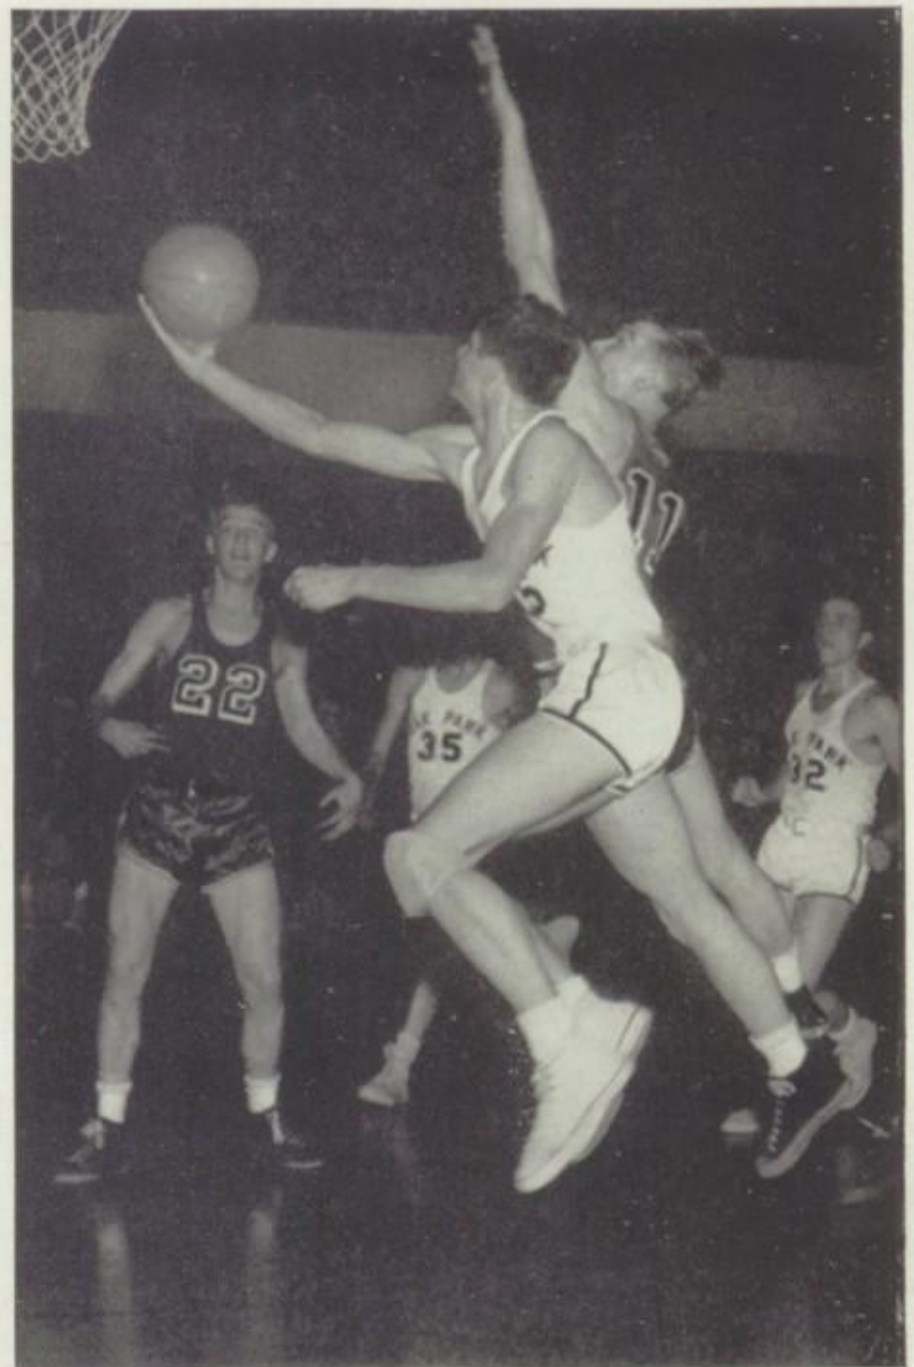

Emerging victors of one of the toughest regionals in the state, our Huskies entered an even tougher sectional. Winning seventeen consecutive games made Oak Park a strong contender for State, but we were upset by Elgin, 49-44. We finished the season with twenty wins and three losses.

Kes Deimling, who led the League by scoring 203 points, and Chuck Hoag were voted positions on the All-Suburban area team. Anderson, Rodgers, and Laughlin received honorable mention. Hoag and Deimling were chosen captains.

Off with the gun

With athletes capable of record performances in all events except the high jump, the 1949 varsity track team is one of the best in the school's history. The co-captains, high hurdler John Ames and low hurdler Bob Magee, led the team in both title and performance, going undefeated in their events up to the time of this writing.

In the League meet, which Oak Park won for the fifth straight year, Pearson came within six inches of the shot put record. Four juniors, half miler Barry Lamond, pole vaulter Don Shebat, miler Bob Stuker, and 440 man Gene Ogle were among the squad's most consistent winners.

Underclass Football Teams...

The Junior Varsity finished the 1948 football campaign with the best won-lost record of Oak Park's three underclass football teams. Led by captain Franklin Creager, the Jay-Vees won five games and dropped two. After losing two of their first three games, they bounced back and took the last four games on the schedule. Diminutive Jim Damiani was the main cog in the team's scoring. He carried the pigskin over the goal eleven times during the season for a total of 66 points. Other backfield stand-outs were "Spider" Hennessy at quarterback and hard-driving Craig Traver at full-back. Starring in the line next to captain Creager at center were guards Maurice Johnson and Howard Brown.

Win or lose, the Sophomore football team did everything in a big way. After a close 25-19 loss to LaGrange in the season opener, the Sophs thumped Morton 20-0 and Highland Park, 37-6, only to cool off in their fourth game and lose to New Trier, 27-7. The last half of the schedule was much like the first, the team trouncing Thornton and Waukegan by lopsided scores and being trounced by Evanston and Proviso by equally lopsided scores. Despite flashes of brilliant ball playing during the season, the team's record totaled four wins and four losses. Dick Damiani and Bruce Moses were elected co-captains at the end of the season.

The Freshman football team managed to triumph in three contests. The yearlings beat Morton, Glenbard, and Waukegan. Stuart Smeltzly was elected captain.

Underclass Basketball Teams . . .

Mid-year promotion of key players kept the Fresh-Soph basketball team down to five League wins against nine losses. Big Tom Ebert consistently poured the ball through the hoop throughout the season and took scoring honors for the team. Gassy McKnight and Bill Kloth, both flashy ball handlers and dependable point-getters, led the team through the first half of the schedule but were lost from the squad at mid-year because of promotion. Nick Hanson and Bill Keller were also standouts. For outstanding service and leadership McKnight and Ebert were elected co-captains.

The Jay-Vees split even on their schedule, winning and losing seven. Among the team's dependable players were Chuck Kolzow, Tom Stachnik, Jim Armstrong, and co-captains Willy Warden and Pete Nelson.

The Freshman basketball team, captained by Stuart Smeltzly and Dick Kolian, had a rather ordinary season. Boys like Chuck Mead, Jim Selligren, Smeltzly, and Kolian, with a little improvement, should ably represent the school in four years on the varsity of 1952.

Losses to New Trier and Evanston were the only blemishes on the record of the Fresh-Soph swimming team. The squad's record for the season, seven wins and two defeats, was good enough for third in the Suburban League.

The Sophs took the opening meet on the schedule, against Thorton, by a score of 39-27. After dropping the next contest the boys came back to win six in a row, only to lose the year's finale to New Trier. Noteworthy swimming was done by Jere Albright, John Olcese, and co-captains George Gfroerer and Dave Mersbach.

Locker Room

Handle with care.

One of Oak Park's top track teams seems to be in the making this year on the Fresh-Soph track squad. After squeezing by Austin in the first meet by three and one-half points, the underclassmen really got rolling. In their second meet they piled up 99 points to New Trier's 35, and in the third meet had a 50-point margin over Schurz. In the Suburban League meet the Fresh-Sophs won with a 15-point margin over second-place Evanston. Playing prominent roles in the team's success were Sittnick, Borwell, Konrad, DeMeritt, Christensen, and Clark.

The Intramural Program . . .

The real winners in the Oak Park High intramural sports program are not only the few boys who win championship shields, but also every boy who takes part. All the boys who participate in intramural sports enjoy hours of fun, friendly competition, and healthful exercise. Intramural sports are the ideal recreation for the boy who is interested in sports but who does not have the time, or perhaps the skill, to be a member of school teams.

On the intramural docket in the fall are tennis, basketball, swimming, and track. The members of the regular track and swimming teams are chosen largely from the boys who did well in those sports in intramurals.

The intramural free-throw contest takes place in the winter. Rounding out the intramural program in the spring are water polo, golf, ping-pong, and softball. Many of the members of the golf team are former intramural golf champs.

One of the more unusual of the intramural activities is the free-throw contest. The object is for contestants to sink as many free throws as possible in twenty-five attempts.

Coach Scott, with the aid of the other coaches, has charge of organizing and directing the intramural program.

Cheerleaders Help Our Teams

In every production there are minor characters who are sometimes neglected in the ovations at final curtain. These players are important in that they add spirit and vitality to the action as executed by the various leading actors. Such is the case of the cheerleaders in the great panorama of sports unrolled each year at Oak Park High School.

Unlike their stage counterparts, our cheerleaders do not go unheralded. The encouragement emanating from the stands is a fitting response to their efforts. And now let's give a tribute at the close of a successful sports year. Y-E-A-H, CHEERLEADERS! Y-E-A-H, CHEERLEADERS! Seven rahs and a Y-E-A-H, Cheerleaders!

Baseball

Strike one?

Archery is one of the after-school sports for girls. Both beginning and advanced archery are offered. The team is chosen from the girls who are most skilled and most interested. The girls find archery a pleasant sport, requiring much skill and coordination.

Baseball is a sport offered in both gym classes and after-school activities. Teams are formed to compete in an after-school tournament. The game is played with a softball and could more realistically be termed softball.

Basketball

Up in the air

Dance

Dance practice

Basketball is one of the sports offered only in after-school activities. The girls meet for the required number of practices. From these girls, four teams are chosen to represent the four classes in school. Several tournaments are played.

In the gym program are offered folk, modern, and square dancing. Again this year a demonstration of the modern dance was given in a public performance and in a special performance for grammar school students. This year it was "The Nutcracker Suite."

Hockey

Off for a run

Posture

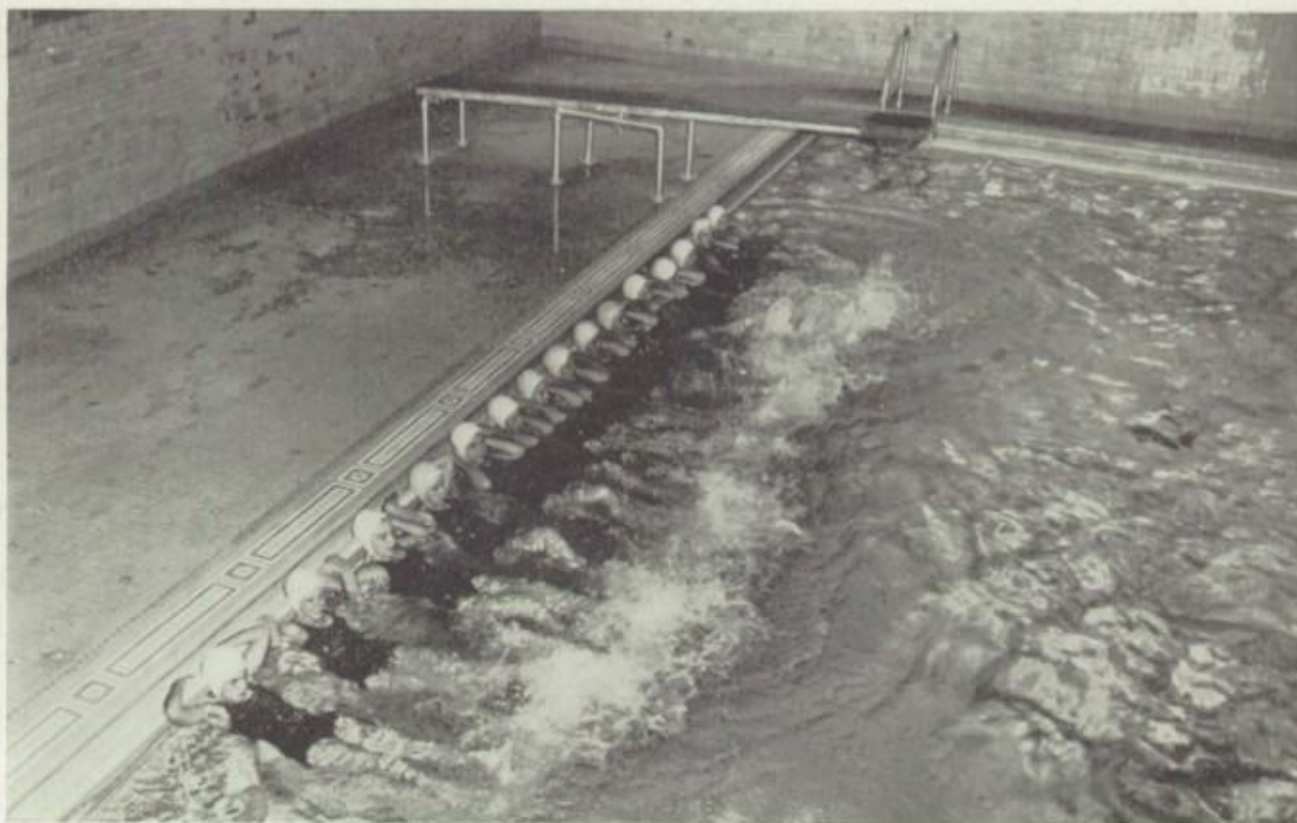

One - Two - Three - Four!

Hockey is one of the fall sports. It is taught both in gym classes and after school. Teams were formed by the girls in the different gym periods. Tournaments were played among these groups.

Posture work is required of those girls whose posture rating is below a certain standard. This class is sometimes taken by girls for whom it is not required. Corrective exercises are given.

Swimming

Splash party

Tennis

Contact!

Swimming is one of the most popular classes offered to the girls. Every girl is required to take swimming at some time during the year. Classes in beginning swimming and synchronized swimming were offered this year.

Tennis is one of the most enjoyable sports to the girls in the gym program. It is taught in the fall and in the spring to advanced and beginning tennis players. In the spring the more advanced players compete in an inter-class tournament.

The archery team had a successful 1948 fall season, playing matches with Proviso, Hinsdale, and Evanston. The team members perfect their skill to hit the bull's eye in after-school practices. The most advanced players perform at the interscholastic matches with other suburban schools.

Tennis

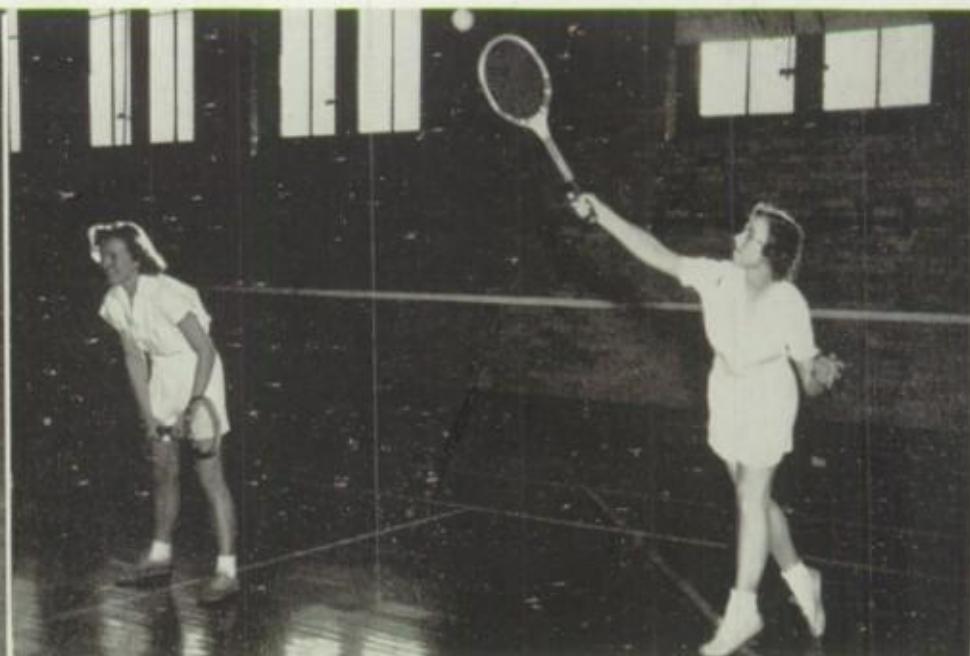

The girls' tennis team of Oak Park High School completed the 1948 fall season with a record of three wins in four matches. The team played Proviso, Glenbard, Leyden, Hinsdale, and Evanston in meets and playdays. The members of the team are selected for their playing ability and sportsmanship.

In the fall of '48 the corridors resounded once again to the laughing voices, banging lockers, and scuffling feet of sun-tanned, exuberant Doopers. New classes meant new books; for the first few days the book store had more than enough business to handle.

Fall brought with it those rousing football games; the bleachers were usually well filled, and the band was just as excited as the most ardent Huskie fan when we came through with that needed touchdown.

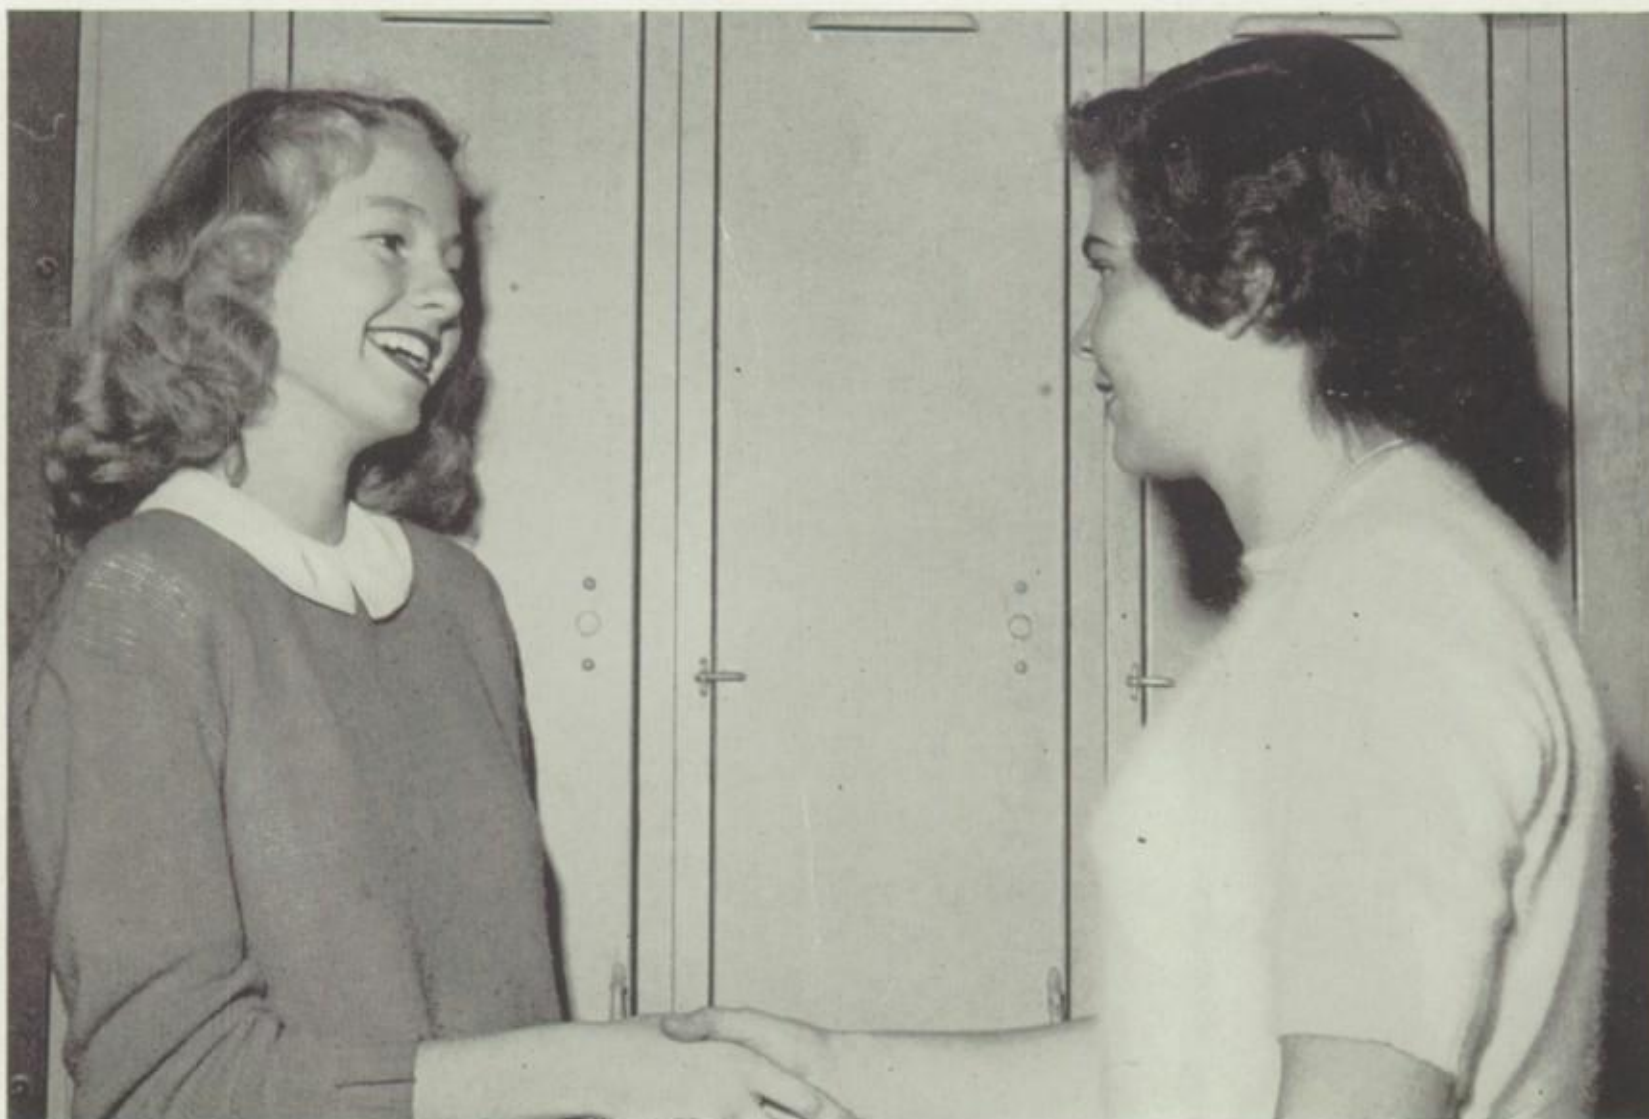

A special occasion for the Freshman and Senior girls was the traditional Big and Little Sister Party. Ask any of the "little" or "big sisters"; they'll tell you about the genuine fun they had.

Fun and food

The theme, "Open Our Eyes," chosen for the thirty-third annual Girls' Conference, was a challenge to all those who attended. Officers, key girls, and alternates alike worked hard to make this year's conference a successful one.

Friday evening's address, "One World," was given by Mrs. Albert Buckner Coe, wife of the former Oak Park Congregational minister, Dr. Coe. She related many of the things she had seen and heard at the Amsterdam World Conference of Churches, which both she and her husband were able to attend. Saturday morning the various parley leaders led their groups in discussions.

Colorful decorations and a lively song fest added to the enjoyment of the traditional banquet, held in the high school that evening.

On Sunday afternoon Dr. Macy, director of the Midwest Region of the World Council of Churches, spoke on the topic, "From Amsterdam to Main Street." Girls' Conference closed Sunday afternoon with the impressive candlelight service and the installation of new officers.

Boys' Conference chose as its theme this year, "Youth United." After the banquet Friday night at the First Methodist Church, Dr. Turck, President of Macalester College in Minnesota, gave the keynote address, entitled "American Youth Unafraid." A question period concluded this session.

Saturday morning a talk on the subject, "Youth Invited," was given by Reverend Dennis Savage, Director of the Christian Youth Conference of North America. Following this, Kjell Knutson of Norway, Valentine Sherring of India, Jacob Quemboro of the Philippines, and Warren Thomas of the United States conducted a panel discussion. All are now enrolled at the Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston. The interesting talks given by each explained something of the hopes and plans of the youth of their countries.

Dr. Albert Buckner Coe spoke at the Sunday session on "American Youth—Eyes Open." The new officers were inducted by Dr. Youngert and welcomed by those officers who had served so well in the conference in 1948.

Assemblies Added Interest and Variety

Many interesting student assemblies are held throughout the year, adding interest and variety to our school experiences. We were exceptionally fortunate this year in that we had many outstanding assembly programs.

The style show presented by the Home Economics Club was of particular interest. The show was given under the direction of Miss Adeline Heinz. The modeling was done by members of the Home Economics Club.

At the first junior-senior assembly Mr. James Eldridge spoke on the United Nations and its structure, its problems, and its importance in current events.

Frying eggs with air—liquid, that is!

All lined up for the show.

Bottom: "... I will roar you as gently as any sucking dove ..."

Mr. Rolf Forsberg, assisted by two actresses, presented "Moods from Shakespeare" before a senior group and again before a sophomore group. Some famous scenes from such plays as "The Taming of the Shrew," "Hamlet," and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" were excellently portrayed.

Another unusual assembly that was extremely enjoyable was given by a four-piano ensemble composed of Hans Heidemann, Audrey Kooper, Stephen Kovacs and Sylvia Dickler. All the performers were very talented. Among the numbers played were Khachaturian's "Sabre Dance" and Chopin's "Polonaise."

Among the other assemblies was a demonstration on liquid air and its uses, an assembly for students of the modern languages, and one featuring the noted singer, Mark Love.

The Big Dramatic Event This Fall Was ...

... "Double Door"

"The pearls! My pearls! Mine!" At these words, spoken by the mad Victoria Van Bret, the curtain fell on "Double Door," the Girls' Club play, directed by Miss Dorothy Miller, and presented on November 12 and 13.

The cast included Lorene Heath as the domineering Victoria; Mitzi Gebhard as her sister, Caroline; David Smillie as their half-brother, Rip; Jane McNamara as Anne Darrow Van Bret, Rip's wife; Donald Lesh as Dr. John Sully; Gilbert Johns as Mr. Neff, the family lawyer; Richard Christiansen as Mr. Chase, the man from Tiffany's; Robin Reed as Lambert, the detective; Margaret Barbour as Avery, an aged housekeeper; Robert Johnson as Telson, the butler; Mary Lou Geis as the maid, Louise; George Hanson as William, the footman; and Bud Hill as the voice of the minister.

Of the many behind-the-scenes workers, Bernice Bryant was the stage manager and Mary Alice McIntosh, the prompter. Faculty advisers and committee chairmen were: Staging and Lighting—Mr. Cooke, Clifford Richardson, David Drews; Costumes—Miss Geller, Anne Wescott, Mary Ellen Washburn; Properties—Mr. Wagus, Carol Shunneson; Scenery, Painting and Art—Mr. Pelz, William Wondrisk; Make-up—Mr. Riebman, Charlotte Boufford; Photography—Mr. Lane, Ted Wenglinski; Publicity—Miss Linden, Miss Lounsbury, Miss Shuart, Charlene Klover, Valerie Faden, Joyce Cooper; Tickets and Business—Mr. Hecketsweiler, Patricia Corydon; Ushers—Mr. Baker, Mr. Dehl—Program—Miss Babcock; Tryout Committee—Mr. Cooke, Miss Geller, Miss Smith; Music—Mr. Little.

"Don't you dare to speak of the vault!"
"Carrie, isn't she lovely?"

"Lead your own life. Fight her."

The jeweler and the minister

"Dearly beloved . . ."

"The man from Tiffany's, madam."

"A Pinkerton operative? How crude!"

"Victoria, I won't have this!"

"Sign it!"

"No. She's just fainted."

Able Directors and Committee Members . . .

A great deal of the credit for the success of all the stage productions goes to the backstage workers. The permanent Stage and Lights Crews spend much time after school and on Saturdays either building or tearing down the beautiful and unusual staging effects used in the productions. The Properties, Costumes, and Make-up committees all put a lot of effort into their important jobs.

The Stage Crew works under the direction of Mr. Knowles Cooke and Mr. James Kendall. The boys on the crew were James Piotter, William Adelman, Robert Bils, Arthur Bublit, Richard Christiansen, Frank Covaro, Richard Dashner, David Drews, Charles Forman, Fraser Head, Jack James, Peter Koukos, Arlen Felchner, Bud Hill, Frank Hole, David Klopfenstein, Don Lesh, Howard Mueller, James Preece, Allan Reed, Robin Reed, Clifford Richardson, James Ryan, Charles Wilmot, and James Wilson.

Mr. Cooke directed these hard-working Lights Crew members: David Drews, Arthur Beckert, John Gersch, Robert Luce, Robert Parker, and James Wilson.

The Swimming Demonstration . .

The classes of Miss Jane Axtell, Miss Theresa Pressl, and Miss Olga Victorik presented the 1948 Swimming Demonstration.

Among the interesting features were synchronized swimming, tandems, stunts, floating formations, a life-saving demonstration, and competitive diving.

Many of the girls participated in after-school swimming in order that they might be in the Demonstration. Their time and effort were well rewarded by the striking effects they were able to produce in a picturesque water ballet.

The Football Dance . . .

The Football Dance always brings with it pleasant associations, and this year was no exception. The theme for the decorations centered around football, and the members of the varsity teams were honored by having their pictures included as part of the decorations.

The Grand March, led by the co-captains of the football team and their dates plus Dot Olson, president of Atalanta, and her date, provided the opening for the dance.

Buddy Mars' band and his vocalist made "very sweet" music. Refreshments, dancing, and just chatting made the time fly for everyone. All too soon, twelve o'clock arrived. Those who were there will agree that the next Football Dance is well worth waiting for if it measures up to this year's dance.

Christmas activities created an air of good will and cheer during the last two busy weeks before the holidays. The famous oratorio, "The Holy City," was presented at the traditional Christmas Vespers under the direction of Mr. Little and Miss Edna Ruth Wood.

Featured as soloists at the annual Christmas Festival were June Obert, Richard Naprstek, and Joanne Tingliff. Caroling in the halls, and the third annual Girls' Club Sing made the Christmas season complete.

A dream that came true

The modern dance groups that presented the 1949 Dance Demonstration under the direction of Miss Lavergne Bergman, through modern dance brought a delightful fairy tale, "The Nutcracker Suite," to reality. Frances Nethercut was cast as the Nutcracker and Charron Follett as the little girl, Marie, who dreams the enchanting story.

"H.M.S. Pinafore"

With gay melodies and a bevy of Sir Joseph Porter's female relatives in colorful hoop skirts, a throng of British sailors on the rollicking ship, "H.M.S. Pinafore," sailed into the auditorium on March 4 and 5. The A Cappella Choir and Symphony Orchestra presented this delightful Gilbert and Sullivan operetta with a complete double cast, which included: Sir Joseph Porter—Michael Shoup, Robert MacGregor; Captain Corcoran—David Shobe, John Welton; Ralph Rackstraw—John Bently, David MacKain; Dick Deadeye—Eugene Ogle, David Eyres; Bill Bobstay—Robert Jones, Bruce Eckland; Bob Becket—Weldon Abels, Jack Borden; Josephine—Mary Nordman, June Obert; Cousin Hebe—Lois Grosser, Lois Tomaso; Buttercup—Joan McCarter, Barbara Nicely; Hornpipe dancer—Robin Reed.

The curtain opened on the realistically slanted decks of the saucy Pinafore, with its gay masts and sparkly trim, in the waters off

"Oh, joy, oh rapture unforeseen!"

Portsmouth. The sailors, in their white suits and big straw hats with blue streamers, stopped scrubbing the quarter-deck long enough to tell the audience that they "sail the ocean blue." Sir Joseph's sisters and cousins and aunts, in their little straw bonnets with ribbons and flowers, soon added their colorful presence to the scene. The audience will long remember the airs of Sir Joseph and the trials of the Captain, Josephine, Ralph, and Buttercup.

The orchestra set the mood for the operetta in the overture and accompanied the production with its usual excellence.

Faculty advisers for "Pinafore" were: Director, Miss Wood; Conductor, Mr. Little; Dramatic Director, Mr. Cooke; Dance Director, Miss Miller; Publicity, Mr. Dehl, Miss Shuart, Miss Linden; Stage, Mr. Cooke, Mr. Kendall; Art, Mr. Pelz; Tickets, Mr. Hockett; Make-up, Mr. Riebman, Mr. Cooke; Ushers, Miss Oxborrow, Miss Staver.

All the committees except the Stage and Lights Crew were made up of members of A Cappella Choir.

High School Conference on International Affairs . . .

Conference leaders consider a point. First row: Christensen, treas.; Lesh, pres.; Kimura, sec.; Bowman. Back row: Schwass; Taubeneck, Barbara; Willens, v. pres.; Taubeneck, Bette.

The seventeenth High School Conference on International Affairs held a challenging message for every alert, world-minded student who attended. Decorations at the banquet were truly awe-inspiring, if a green-eyed, fire-breathing dragon can be so considered. The decorations were right in step with the theme of the conference, "The China Puzzle."

After enjoying several numbers presented by the Boys' Quartet, those who attended the Saturday evening session heard Dr. No Yong Park's stimulating and penetrating view of "The China Crisis as Viewed by an Oriental." Dr. Park has written several books on the subject and is a widely acclaimed lecturer here in America.

To complement Dr. Park's talk, Sunday afternoon Mr. Frederic Marquardt, just returned from a three months' assignment in China, gave his enlightening view on "The China Crisis as Viewed by an American."

We as citizens of tomorrow, have much to consider as we try in our minds to find a solution to the question that now confronts us concerning China's importance in the world of today and of tomorrow.

"I Remember Mama"

"I Remember Mama" was the Senior Class play, presented on May 6 and 7. The twenty-seven scenes, played on two revolving stages and two movable platforms, made the production unusual and outstanding.

The fine cast was directed by Mr. Knowles Cooke and included: Katrin—Frances Nethercut; Mama—Virginia Lestina; Papa—David Smillie; Dagmar—Joan Katoll; Christine—Phyllis Clindinin; Mr. Hyde—Robert Charles; Nels—Richard Burritt; Aunt Trina—Jane Fraser; Aunt Sigrid—Francine Kaye; Aunt Jenny—Virginia Smith; Uncle Chris—John Dreiske; Jessie—Mary Hulburt; Mr. Thorkelson—Richard Christiansen; Arne—Richard Maxwell; Dr. Johnson—Wallace Hastings; Nurse—Barbara Caspers; Another Nurse—Carol Bowman; Soda clerk—William Brownlie; Madeline—Gloria Gable; Dorothy—Lois Tomaso; Florence Dana Moorehead—Eleanor Park; Bellboy—Bud Hill; Orderly—Ronald Knudson; Scrubwoman—Christine Schaub; Hotel Guests—Geraldine Hoskins, Carol Brenner.

The hard-working people behind the scenes included Margaret Barbour and Lorene Heath as prompters and Donald Lesh as production manager. The committee chairmen and faculty advisers were: Properties, Miss Turner, James Piotter; Costumes, Miss Lounsbury, Jean Eggert; Tickets, Mr. Hecketsweiler, Howard Willens; Program, Mrs. Abel, Robert Johnson; Publicity, Miss Shuart, Miss Linden, Miss Lounsbury, Joanne Phillips; Photography, Mr. Lane, Ted Wengliniski; Typing, Miss Babcock, Spring Activities . . .

Spring brings with it one of the busiest seasons of the year at our school.

Junior Prom April 30

At this annual dance the juniors entertain the seniors as their guests of honor. The Prom is much looked forward to by members of both classes.

Senior Play May 6, 7

The senior class of 1949 presented that heart-warming story, "I Remember Mama." The members of the cast and all the crews spent many hours of rehearsal to give us splendid entertainment.

May Breakfast May 14

The May Breakfast is presented each year by the officers of Girls' Conference. The outstanding event is the crowning of the fortunate one who is chosen Queen of the May.

Music Festival May 20, 21

Memorial Day May 30

Every year in honor of our country's dead our school reserves a day for an impressive outdoor memorial assembly.

THIS graduate has demonstrated leadership; but many are the fields of endeavor, and each graduate will have his chance to excel in one or more.

All will find, however, that thrift is a prerequisite for any course of action. Adult accomplishments usually have a background of thrifty preparation.

In banking we try to be leaders, and we want to help you to be one, also. Get acquainted with this friendly bank and let us help you in your climb.
